

A Week in the Life of our Reception classes
9th-13th May 2016

The clue is in the name 'Foundation Stage'.

Giving learning opportunities through play, ensuring activities are open-ended and encouraging independence. These are the basic building blocks of a solid foundation to lifelong learning.

Children naturally want to learn. There is no more important period than the Early Years in terms of helping to develop happy, confident, healthy people.

CONCRETE SCULPTURE

The Refugee

*In 1992, the sculptor
This haunting piece, with its
and our hearts, was government given to the celebrated in 2006, to mark the anniversary of the 1997 year.*
